In fiscal year 2021, we were met with the continued challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic and its subsequent devastating impact on minority-owned small businesses. We launched an online broadcast platform called "up-to-date with Suazo" through which we discussed many topics relevant to the pandemic and options for affected small businesses to not only survive, but to thrive. We built new partnerships with multiple regional municipalities and strengthened existing relationships with our current partners. We had to pivot our own ways of presenting our curriculum and had the opportunity to move to a completely digital platform. Our operations were affected by the pandemic, but we were able to succeed and help our clients survive and succeed as well.
